

About us

Welcome to the webpage of Kassel's academy of music

We are glad about your interest in the academy of music of the city of Kassel and we warmly invite you to get informed about our institution and the various opportunities it offers.

In the middle of Germany, in the middle of life, in the middle of the city-
Kassel's academy of music...

- is a state-approved university of cooperative education according to the Hessian law (of university of cooperative education).
- is the only educational institution for musical professions in North-Hesse.
- offers the practice-oriented degree course "Instrumental/Vocal Pedagogy" with the internationally accepted graduation "Bachelor of Music".
- looks back to a rich tradition of musical education and cultivation of music in Kassel, which is strongly related to the work of the probably most famous musician of Kassel, the violinist, conductor, orchestral educator and composer Luis Spohr.
- considers itself as an institution of sounds, learning and culture for Kassel and the region of North-Hesse; a place of vivid music-making and learning.

On the following pages you will find descriptions of our training places on offer, you can get to know the staff and you will gain an overview of our concerts and events.

For your questions and suggestions you can make use of our contact form or you may just come over! We are looking forward to your visit!
