A remark on the electronic communication in the administrative procedure
This way of communication is at the moment only available as an informative platform. E-mail addresses and e-mail formula of the city of Kassel do not constitute an access for electronically signed, unsigned, coded or uncoded documents, as far as the access is not explicitly opened in its entirety according to § 3a VwVfG, § 36 a SGB I or § 87 a AO. This will be especially mentioned in each individual case.

If your message contains such a writing, a repetition of the transmission is at the moment required by mail. Users of the e-mail access are requested to name, next to their e-mail address, also their post address, because due to administrative reasons, it is currently not possible to answer all e-mails on the electronic way.
